REMAINING EVENTS THIS EVENING

We ask that parents support their students by making sure they are on campus for all orientation programming to help them meet fellow students, learn about Tulane resources, and get adjusted to campus life.

CENTER FOR INTERCULTURAL LIFE ORIENTATION AND DINNER

6 P.M. – 7:30 P.M., QATAR BALLROOM, 212 LAVIN-BERNICK CENTER, FOR STUDENTS AND FAMILIES

- ▶ The Carolyn Barber-Pierre Center for Intercultural Life welcomes new students and their families to Tulane! The CIL includes the Office of Multicultural Affairs, the Office for Gender & Sexual Diversity, and Spiritual Life. Hear from campus administrators and staff and learn about resources and individuals who can offer support and advice to ensure students have a successful transition into college and thrive during their Tulane experience. The event begins with dinner followed by separate brief presentations for students and families.

DINING OPTIONS ON-CAMPUS

- ▶ Students' meal plans will be in effect on Move-In days. Parents may pay at the door of the Dining Room at Malkin Sacks Commons or at the cashier in the LBC Food Court for a la carte options. Check <https://tulane.campusdish.com/LocationsAndMenus> for hours, locations, and menus.

DROP-IN RESIDENCE HALL PROGRAMMING

7 P.M. – 8 P.M., FOR STUDENTS ONLY, IN THEIR RESIDENCE HALLS

- ▶ Students are encouraged to stop by the lobby of their residence hall to meet the staff, grab a treat, and say hello to other residents of the community!
