 - Every student will receive a mail code and shipping address to use while living on campus.
 - In-Room pre-delivery for Move In program
 - Ship up to 6 packages to be placed in room prior to your arrival
 - Additional packages will be charged $10/package
 - Packages for must arrive at Tulane between December 9-December 31
- Ship From Home, Tulane Shipping Portal--Save on FedEx Ground Retail pricing by using this easy online shipping option. <https://mailservices.tulane.edu/students/2-ship>
 - If you ship from online shopping services, always use your student's full Tulane address and mail code number (not their residence hall name and room number).
 - Beware of same day delivery services from Wal-Mart and other retailers because these services do not deliver to proper locations on campus.
 - Please review our prohibited items list of items which cannot be shipped to Tulane:
 - <https://mailservices.tulane.edu/content/prohibited-items>
 - Items received after December 31 will be available to pick up from the Tulane Mail Center or from parcel lockers in other campus locations. Students will receive an email with instructions for every package received.
 - For questions please email mailbox@tulane.edu.

Residence Hall Move-In Information

Housing and Residence Life (HRL) will assign and email your student's Move-In date and arrival time slot by mid-December.

- Monday, January 6, 2025 – for students approved to participate in Panhellenic Recruitment by the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Programs.
- Friday, January 10, 2025 - for students not participating in sorority recruitment.

HRL will assign specific 30-minute arrival time slot between 10 a.m. – 2 p.m. to arrive on campus, check-in, and begin moving into their residence hall room.

This email message will also contain a Move-In Guide outlining the traffic flow for Move-In, designated parking lot, as well as the tent location to check-in. Staff volunteers with golf carts will be available to help you transport items to your student's residence hall.

- When planning your travel to New Orleans, keep in mind that students have required activities after Move-In for Orientation and/or Recruitment. If you wish to spend time together as a family in New Orleans, plan to do that before your student's Move-In Day.

Hullabaloo Hello

Hullabaloo Hello is an immersive orientation experience and celebratory welcome to Tulane for all new undergraduate students – first-years and transfers!

Panhellenic Recruitment

PNMs will have a different Hullabaloo Hello schedule. Check our website for more details.

Key Programs

Social events, drop-in advising, Reading Project discussion, Beyond the Bubble, and more!

Schedule App

We have a Hullabaloo Hello app, where students can locate their specific schedule. More information to come later this month!

Family Programs events for you!

There will be two events specifically for families on your student's Move-In Day, whether that is Monday, January 6, 2025 or Friday, January 10, 2025:

Family Resource Station, 1 – 4 p.m., Pedersen Lobby, Lavin-Bernick Center

drop-in, information table-style activity to give answers to immediate questions, offer navigation assistance, etc. Invited departments include Campus Health, Campus Recreation, Campus Services, Center for Academic Equity, College Advising, Family Programs, First Year Experience, Emergency Preparedness and Response, Student Employment, Technology Connection, Tulane Athletics Marketing, Tulane Bookstore, Tulane Dining Services, and Tulane University Police Department, and University Financial Aid.

Family Welcome Reception, 4 – 5 p.m., Diboll Gallery, 301 Malkin Sacks Commons

Join other parents and family members to mingle and enjoy light refreshments. Senior administrators and staff in key departments will be available to chat, answer questions and help you get to know Tulane. Mollye Demosthenidy, Dean of Newcomb-Tulane College, and Sarah Cunningham, Vice President for Student Affairs, will offer a special welcome.

QUESTIONS?

Submit your questions in the Q & A feature in your controls.

You may email any remaining questions to Family Programs at families@tulane.edu and we'll forward your question to the appropriate department.

Thank you for joining us tonight!
See you in January!
