RESOURCES FOR ITEMS MENTIONED IN THE Q&A SECTION OF THE LIVE WEBINAR

- Summer storage for the summers after the first, sophomore, and junior year is explained every year in the Spring Move-Out section of the Housing & Residence Life website. Details are updated annually around mid-spring semester.
- The 2024 Reading Project book selection for the Class of 2028 is Platonic: How The Science of Attachment Can Help You Make—and Keep—Friends by Dr. Marisa G Franco. Students are required to read the book over the summer and participate in a faculty-led group discussion on Friday, August 16, 2024, during their Hullabaloo Hello (orientation) experience. <https://firstyear.tulane.edu/reading-project>.
- Health Insurance Action Process begins starting June 20, 2024 - After the student enrolls in classes, they should monitor their Tulane email for health insurance requirements and details. They must either enroll in the Tulane-sponsored Student Health Insurance Plan (T-SHIP) or complete the waiver process to provide proof that their family's insurance meets the requirements so they can opt out of T-SHIP before they arrive to campus or by the posted August 15, 2024, whichever is earliest. Newly enrolled international students are required to enroll in T-SHIP. Health Insurance Requirements - <https://campushealth.tulane.edu/insurance-billing/health-insurance-requirements>.

- New Student Checklist - organized by month for May, June, July, and August that compiles all of the required and recommended procedures and preparation steps in one place online: <https://firstyear.tulane.edu/your-tu-do-list>. Students should click on each month and it will open to show the items necessary to do that month, as shown in the screen image below. There is also a link to print a PDF version, but I strongly recommend that students and families use the online version since it has links to relevant forms, websites, etc.
- Encourage your student to carefully read the Navigator newsletters sent to their Tulane email address from the Office of the First-Year Experience (fye@tulane.edu). Parents can find the archive at the bottom of this web page: <https://firstyear.tulane.edu/modules-messages>.
